

Macbease Terms and Conditions Summary

User Terms and Conditions

Data Collection and Usage

By using the Macbease platform—operated by Macbease Connections Private Limited—you agree to their policies on data collection.

- Personal Information: The service collects personally identifiable information that you provide, such as your email address, first name, and last name.
- Automatic Usage Data: The platform automatically logs details like your device's IP address, browser version, page visit durations, and unique device identifiers.
- Device Permissions: The application may ask for permission to access your device's camera and photo library to enable specific features.

Tracking Technologies

Macbease uses several methods to track activity and store information on your device.

- Cookies: The platform uses both Session Cookies (which delete when you close your browser) and Persistent Cookies (which remain to remember your preferences).
- Essential and Functional Uses: These cookies are strictly used to authenticate users, prevent fraud, and remember personal choices like login details.
- Web Beacons: The service uses small electronic files to count users who visit specific pages or open emails.

Event Disclaimers and Liability

A significant portion of the terms outlines the separation of liability between Macbease and the users who host events on the platform.

- Organizer Responsibility: While Macbease provides the tools for ticket sales and promotion, the event organizers and clubs take full responsibility for planning and executing the events.
- No Background Checks: Macbease does not verify the credibility of event organizers or conduct background checks.
- Liability Limitations: The platform assumes no responsibility for any harm, disputes, or misconduct that occurs during an event.
- Refunds and Cancellations: In the event of a cancellation or rescheduling, Macbease is not liable for issuing refunds or compensation, as this is solely the organizer's duty.

Club and Community (Organizer) Terms and Conditions

1. Platform Fees & Refund Mechanics

- 5% Service Fee: Macbease charges a mandatory, non-refundable 5% platform fee on every ticket sold through their website or mobile application to cover development and operational costs.
- Non-Refundable Deductions: If a ticket is refunded, both the 5% platform fee and any applied discounts or offers are deducted from the refund total.
- Organizer-Driven Refunds: Macbease does not hold the full ticket proceeds and will never issue a refund on its own initiative; refunds are processed exclusively upon the direct instruction and authorization of the organizing club.

2. Consequences of Fee Non-Compliance

If an organizing club fails to pay the required 5% platform fee, Macbease enforces escalating penalties:

- Temporary Suspension: The club's ability to create or post new events is paused until all outstanding dues are cleared.
- Event Cancellation: For significant unpaid balances or repeated defaults, Macbease reserves the right to cancel active, ongoing events.
- Account Termination: Persistent non-compliance leads to a permanent ban from publishing events and the full termination of the club's account.

3. Operational & Legal Disclaimers for Clubs

Macbease positions itself purely as a technology facilitator and explicitly disclaims operational liability:

- Full Execution Responsibility: The club or community assumes sole responsibility for planning, executing, managing, and securing the event.
- No Background Verification: Macbease explicitly states it does not conduct background checks or verify the credibility of student organizers, leaving verification diligence to attendees.
- Content, Pricing & Safety: Organizers are legally responsible for the accuracy of all posted event details (date, time, venue), compliance with local laws, attendee safety, and setting their own pricing or cancellation rules.

4. Disputes & Policy Amendments

- Support Contact: Any disputes regarding payment accounting or fee calculations must be directed to support@macbease.com.
- Policy Updates: Macbease reserves the right to alter or update the fee structure and organizer policies at any time via announcements on their platform.
